300 Hear Reagan Discuss Plan For Election In 1966

More than 300 people Sunday evening attended the dinner sponsored by the North Lake Tahoe Republican Women's Club honoring Ronald Reagan at Olympic Village Hotel in Squaw Valley.

Reagan gave an interesting and straight forward talk on his platform as a republican candidate for the governorship of California, but declined to announce his candidacy, saying that he hoped that by January, he could make a definite statement.

The speaker explained that he felt that before the primary election in June, voters of the state should be well informed on potential candidates and should make their choice of the best qualified. He indicated that if his surveys indicated he was the most favored, then he would make an announcement.

Following the talk, Reagan answered every question without hedging and make a very good impression on his audience.

William Briner, Placer County Supervisor, presided at the meeting, introducing Mrs. Briner, head of the sponsoring club, whose committees worked diligently to make the affair the success it was. Briner also introduced Assemblyman Gene Chappie, who in turn presented Reagan. Others at the head table included Mrs. Reagan, Mrs. Chappie and Lieutenant Governor and Mrs. Laxalt of Nevada.

Reagan said that while he has never before entered the political field, he felt that he is ably qualified because of his many organizational activities such as head of the actors' guild, the motion picture industry council and director of many other organizations.

Wolverines Travel For Final Contest

In their final Pioneer League game of the season the Tahoe Truckee Wolverines Friday bowed to the Lincoln High School Zebras 13 to 0 in a rugged game.

Tonight (Thursday), the Wolverines travel to Travis Air Force Base to meet the Vanden eleven in the final game of the season. It will be a varsity only game, the juniors having completed their year against Lincoln's JV's 7 to 0 last Friday.

The Wolverines held the Zebras scoreless during the first half, but Bill Harris scored in the third quarter and added the extra point to lead 7 to 0. Mark Hayward ran 18 yards for the only other score of the game in the final period.

Golf Course Closes After Busy Season

After what he termed the most successful season ever enjoyed here, despite adverse weather conditions during most of the summer, Alex Stewart, manager of the Ponderosa Golf Club, announced Tuesday that the course will be closed this week.

Stewart said that although work has been continuous on improving the course, which is now in almost perfect condition, additional improvements are contemplated for the spring.

In order to avoid damage from winter storms, tSewart said snow fences will be erected on some of the greens, including 6, 8 and 9 and that other precautions are being taken, including heating of the clubhouse.

Stewart expressed his appreciation for the support the course has enjoyed from the local residents as well as visitors to the area.

Gaiennie To Retire After Long Service With Sierra Pacific

Two men whose combined service to Sierra Pacific Power Company numbers 78 years were honored by co-workers and officers at a retirement party at Hidden Valley Friday night.

For Roy Torvinen, vice president for finance, it marked completion of 43 years in the public utility business and for Frank Gaiennie III it was the end of a 48-year utility career. For both it was the start of a new and more relaxed life on this area's golf courses.

Torvinen began his utility careers with Puget Sound Power and Light Company back in 1921 after attending the University of Washington. Early in 1930 he moved to Reno and joined Sierra Pacific as chief clerk.

Working his way up the ranks Torvinen became assistant treasurer in 1947 and held that post for ten years before becoming secretary and treasurer, positions he vacated in 1963 to become finance vice president of the utility.

Gaiennie joined the utility in 1922, two names back on the company records when it was known as the Truckee River General Electric Company, as an operator at the Washoe power plant. He worked in progressively responsible positions in Carson City, Yerington and Truckee, becoming superintendent of the Truckee District in 1931 and holding that position for 31 years.

Gaiennie later successfully served as manager of all districts outside Reno-Sparks, superintendent of district operations and finally, for the last 17 months chief electrical engineer.

Before being employed by Sierra Pacific, Gaiennie worked five years for Nevada Valleys Power Company in its engineering department and as a power house operator at Lahontan. As superintendent of the Truckee District from 1931 to 1962 he was responsible for electric service during Lake Tahoe's growth years and served on the cable splicing crew which linked North and South Tahoe with an underwater cable at the mouth of Emerald Bay.

DRIVER HAS ROUGH DAY IN LOCAL COURT

Charles August DeBenedette, 41, San Francisco, had a rough day in the Truckee Judicial Court last Thursday when he appeared before Judge F. W. Wilson on two charges.

DeBenedette was cited by the California Highway Patrol at 10:30 p.m. on a hit and run charge and thirty minutes later was again cited for drunk driving and speeding.

On the former charge he pleaded guilty and was fined $166 or sentenced to 30 days in jail. On the later count, he was fined $276 or sentenced to 50 days. His driver's license was suspended for six months.

STORM LEAVES ONLY LIGHT RAIN IN AREA

The promised storm scheduled for last weekend failed to materalize and although .05 of an inch of rain was recorded in this area, the fire danger is still not over, the U. S. Forest Service reported.

The low humidity has lessened the fire hazard and the lookout on Martis was removed at least temporarily. However, Mrs. Fosten Wilson is maintaining her post at the Stateline Lookout station until a storm removes any possible danger of a forest fire.

TWO PERMITS ARE ISSUED BY BOARD

The Nevada County Planning Commission Monday approved two local applications for use permits.

The Ad-Art, Inc., was granted a permit for a single-faced billboard on property leased from the Southern Pacific on the south side of Interstate 80 west of the Soda Springs exit for a one year period.

Work Completed On Ball Fields At New District Park

Work on the Truckee-Donner recreation park south of Truckee is drawing to a close for the winter but three major accomplishments have been completed, Randy Bobby, superintendent of the recreation and park district, announced.

Two baseball diamonds, one for regulation play and the other for softball and junior league have been completed. The ice rink is ready for use and the picnic grounds are completed.

Bobby said that the larger baseball diamond has been constructed for regulation playing with the left and right outfield 340 feet deep and center field 400 feet. The area will be allowed to settle this winter and will be smoothed off and prepared for games next spring. The same procedure will be used on the smaller diamond, with seeding slated later next year.

The ice pond, which eventually will be developed into a tennis court, will be flooded and made ready for use this winter, Bobby said.

Sprinklers were being installed on the baseball fields last week.

Bobby said that by next spring, the grounds will be opened and ready for occupancy, providing a full recreational program.

BAND PARTICIPATES IN PARADE IN RENO

The Tahoe Truckee High School band could have been justifiably proud of its performance and marching last Thursday evening at Reno where it had been invited to take part in a pre auto show parade. The boys and girls were under the able direction of Frank Austin, music teacher of the school.

Another recent event when the band played and was favorably received was on October 27 when members of the Golden Foothills District of California Garden Clubs held a fall meeting at Auburn and later a large group traveled to Vista Point at Donner Lake Interstate 80 west, for the dedication of the district's first blue star memorial in honor of those serving in the U. S. armed forces, past, present and future. Miss Joan English was the soloist.

SUNBEAMS

By WALTER M. BARRETT

On another page of the Sierra Sun today, the directors of the Tahoe Forest Hospital District have attempted to explain in brief the reasons why the forthcoming bond issue must carry if the construction project now underway is to be completed. Probably one of the most important items in the explanation is the one giving the reason for the advance of $45,000 over the original request. This was not an arbitrary figure set by the board, but is required to reinstate Change Order No. 1 which will include necessary facilities which the board originally assumed would be supplied by a grant, which was not forthcoming. If, in the future, this grant is made, it will be deducted from the bonds, lessening the cost to the taxpayers.

Hunters Abandoned In Highway Mistake

Through the efforts of the California Highway Patrol, two bay area hunters were safely home last week after being accidentally stranded on Interstate 80 near Farad about 11 p.m. Thursday.

The two, Dan Souza of Hayward and Jack Michaelson of Newark, had been hunting in Utah with two friends. As they were returning home, Souza and Michaelson decided to get out of the cab and ride in the attached camper. They went to the rear of the vehicle but found the door locked. As they were looking for the key, the driver, thinking they had had plenty of time to get aboard, continued on the way.

Highway patrol officers spotted the two along the highway, learned of their plight and took them to the Greyhound bus depot where they purchased tickets for home.

Apparently, they were not missed by their companions, who presumed they were asleep in the camper.

LEGAL BATTLE SEEN IN PLACER ROOM TAX

TAHOE CITY—A legal battle is shaping up between motel owners and the county over a 4 per cent transient room occupancy tax.

Led by the Tahoe City Motel Association, the group of businessmen has retained an attorney to seek possible repeal of a county ordinance which became effective last April.

The motel and hotel owners opposed the tax, then, and recently expressed dissatisfaction when it was learned that none of the $90,000 collected during the first six months will be spent in the Placer County porition of the lake area.

USE TAX ALLOCATED TO COUNTY BY STATE

SACRAMENTO — (CNS) —The October apportionment of highway users taxes included $28,977.28 for Nevada County, State Controller Alan Cranston reported.

The biggest portion of the funds, $25,709,467, went to the state highway fund for expenditure in state highways. The counties received $9,968,074; the state highway fund received $4,449,294 for cities; and the state highway fund received $6,379,567 for use on the select system of city streets and county roads.

South Tahoe Gives Big Vote In Plan For Incorporation

By a margin of 2,011 to 614, the voters of South Lake Tahoe Tuesday took advantage of the many benefits provided through incorporation to form a city.

The newly incorporated area embraces the communities of Stateline, Bijou, Al Tahoe and Tahoe Valley and estimated population of 8,000.

"We now have local government and do not have to rely on those from other areas to take care of our needs. We now have a local voice and control our own destiny. It is something which is long past due."

Five councilmen were chosen from a list of 19 and on the vote for naming the city, the vote was close there being 1,274 for "South Lake Tahoe" and 1,187 for "City of Lake Tahoe."

Federal Group To Scan Tahoe Area

On his recent visit to Truckee and Lake Tahoe, Congressman Harold T. (Bizz) Johnson declared that he hopes to bring the house subcommittee on rivers and harbors to this area to study the sewage disposal problems.

Johnson said he hopes to meet with interested groups concerning the matter to review a request for federal assistance recently made by the Placer County Board of Supervisors.

The board is seeking a $20 million grant to implement an engineering study and provide for the export and disposal of sewage to prevent further damage to the beauty of Lake Tahoe.

Mrs. Edwards Gets Honors From '49ers

Major and Mrs. Robert Edwards have left for Lone Pine and Death Valley where they will attend the 16th annual Encampment of the Death Valley '49ers. Mrs. Edwards was recently elected honorary director of the group.

Three years ago a monument was erected on Father Crowley Point, five miles west of Panamint Springs and dedicated by the Death Valley '49ers to the membory of Father Crowley. The monument was the culmination of Helen Gunn Edwards dream of a lasting memorial to the famed "Padre of the Desert". She and her husband commissioned the building of the marker, the work being done by the famous craftsman, Dobie Gunnerson.

Helen Gunn Edwards has been signally honored by the organization whose sole aim is to keep alive the memories of the pioneers and all great men who dedicated their lives to promoting the welfare of the vast desert country.

Lunardi Raps High Court For Ruling In Reapportioning

Senator Paul J. Lunardi of Roseville, representing this district in the state legislature, was the principal speaker at last Thursday's annual membership meeting of the North Lake Tahoe Chamber of Commerce at Crystal Bay Club.

One of the outstanding features of the evening was the presentation of the "Man of the Year" trophy to Jack Domergue by Ralph Rauscher. Domergue, manager of Pacific Telephone Company and president of the chamber, has been most active in promoting the district and his selection was unanimously approved.

In his talk, Lunardi stressed the importance of protection and preservation of Lake Tahoe which he declared was a joint responsibility of the federal government, the states and the five counties adjoining the lake.

He also expressed his displeasure with the problem of reapportionment.

"I am unhappy and very concerned with the problem of reapportionment which now faces all 50 states caused by a preposterous decision rendered by the U. S. Supreme Court. I have always felt and will continue to believe that the supreme court was wrong in treading into legislative affairs and interfering with our elective branch of government.

"As long as God permits me to remain on this earth, I will continue to object to such drastic con-

DONNER DOINGS . . .

It's coming . . . winter, that is. The snow stakes are up along old highway 40 and a light covering of snow fell in the upper regions Sunday night, however, the ground is warm, so it didn't last long. But, it gets us wondering about snow resmoval doesn't it?

Hunting season ended Sunday with many a hunter left without getting a buck this year.

Huge piles of Christmas trees are being stored at Slates Motel again this year for the coming holiday season. Glad the weather has turned colder so that they will keep longer. It's always wise to stand your trees in water or wet sand while in the house to keep the needles from drying out. What's nicer than the smell of evergreens around the Christmas season?

There are some beautiful pine cones available this year, the Jeffery and Tamarack trees are dropping them just in time to decorate.

Les Hadley has been helping his neighbor Jack Marquette at Donner Shore Resort with forms for another cement wall. The other was washed out during last December's storm.

Hadley's are having their wall removed so that traffic can be diverted during construction of the new huge opening for Gregory Creek under the highway, to alivate the disaster that happened last year when the smaller culvert clogged up and water began spilling over the road nearly washing their homes.

Do hope something is done about the drainage along old higway 40 soon, water is still flowing over the hiway near the old Lakeview Hotel.

ONE OF THE KEYS TO SUCCESS IN SCHOOL is GOOD VISION
AMERICAN OPTOMETRIC ASSOCIATION

The Hospital Story

It started in 1949 when the Tahoe Forest Hospital District was formed and the voters passed a bond issue to build the hospital for the community. The building was completed on land donated by Richard Joseph and was in operation by 1952.

It served the area well until about 1957 when it became evident that it was much too small. Patients, seriously in need of medical care were forced to be bedded in hallways. Many have had to be turned away to hospitals elsewhere.

Action was taken, and in January 1964, the voters passed a bond issue for $1,150,000 to expand the present facilities.

This time it was deemed prudent to include into the structure enough of the costly but necessary items, that is dietary, radiology, surgery, emergency, pediatrics, etc., so that in the future, when population increases demanded, only bedrooms (relatively inexpensive) would need to be added. New plans not only correct inadequate combined surgical and obstetrical facilities, but provide enough of all basic hospital services, such as emergency rooms, children's ward and kitchen, so that future needs may be met by relatively low cost bed additions only.

After lengthy consultations with medical staff, the hospital board of directors and other hospitals, the architect presented a set of plans that fulfilled the needs, apparently within the budget limits assuming, however, that much vital hospital equipment would be furnished by foundation funds or grants. There was strong assurance that such funds would be available.

When the construction bids were opened in March, 1965, the lowest bid was for $1,302,713, or an amount in excess of the budget set in 1962.

At this point the hospital district board had three choices:

1. Reject the bids and redesign the hospital. This would have caused delay of a year or more, added to construction costs due to yearly increases in material and labor and result in a building inadequate for fulfilling the district's needs now and for the future.

2. Ask for an override tax (a simple majority vote) which would put the tax burden only on the taxpayers in the area for the next five years and again cause lengthy delays and added cost in construction.

3. Scale down the lowest bid offer by instituting a charge order, thereby permitting construction to start at once at today's prices and ask the voters to pass a 30-year bond issue for money needed to reinstate the change order while construction was under way at today's prices.

After careful study, it was determined that only choice No. 3 would:

(a) Allow construction to start immediately.
(b) Spread the tax load over more taxpayers over a longer period.
(c) To be most economical in the long run.
(d) Give the district the type of hospital it needs and deserves.

Early in 1965, a contract was let to Ralph Larsen & Son to remodel the old hospital and construct the new addition in accordance with change Order No. 1 for the sum of $1,085,000.

Soon after construction started it became evident that anticipated funds providing for needed equipment would not be forthcoming.

On August 31, a bond issue was presented to the district voters asking for money to reinstate change Order No. 1 and purchase the necessary equipment.

This was defeated by a narrow margin when less than 25 per cent of the registered voters turned out to cast their ballots.

On Tuesday, November 23, the voters will again be asked to go to the polls and vote on this important issue. Some questions of concern are answered here:

Question: How does the cost of the new building and remodeling the old structure, plus purchase of equipment compare to the cost of the original hospital?

Answer: The old hospital, equipped cost approximately $600,000. The new addition, plus remodeling and equipment costs $1,730,000.

Question: Why is the bond issue now $45,000 more than before?

Answer: The builder agreed under the contract to reinstate change order No. 1 at no extra cost if it could be done prior to September 1, 1965. After that date construction would be so far along that the changes would require more money. The September deadline was the reason for setting the previous election for August 31.

Question: Will the district be asked soon again to pass another bond issue?

Answer: No. This hospital will meet all requirements for a long time and when the population growth does demand it, the hospital will be so complete that only bedrooms will need to be added.

Question: What is the hospital tax rate?

Answer: 20 cents per $100 assessed valuation, the maximum legal limit and far below other taxable services.

Question: How much will this bond issue cost the individual taxpayer if passed?

Answer: Little more than the price of a cigarette a day for the average home owner and smaller as the area population grows and more taxpayers share the costs.

Question: What will happen if this coming bond issue fails?

Answer: An empty shell will stand idle, unable to take care of the community needs or an override tax could be imposed upon the taxpayer to finish the project.

Question: How do we know that the amount now requested will complete and equip the hospital?

Answer: The existing contract assures it with the reinstatement of change Order No. 1 Any help received from outside philanthropic sources, now being applied for, would reduce bond sales by an amount equal to such grants, thus affording a tax saving.

CULVERT PROJECT IS COMPLETE AT LAKE

A $29,000 project to replace a culvert on State Highway 89 at McKinney Creek about 7½ miles north of Tahoe City has been completed, according to California highway officials at the Marysville district office.

This section was damaged by December 1964 storms. The new culvert will improve drainage and provide additional protection for the highway.

A. Teichert & Son Inc. of Tahoe City was contractor and Jim Oglesbee of Meadow Vista was resident engineer for the state.

CHAPPIE WILL NOT SEEK SENATE SEAT

Assemblyman Gene Chappie of the sixth assembly district, which includes this portion of the state, has announced that he will not seek a senate seat in the new 3rd senatorial district.

"As a freshman assemblyman it is my intent and desire to continue to serve as the assemblyman for the 6th District," Chappie declared. "I feel that the mountain counties now more than ever need an experienced representative who will fight for their interests."

"As a result of reapportionment we could very possibly see a complete change of personnel in both the assembly and the senate. Many of the incumbent assemblymen will be running for one of the newly created seats in the senate. In this case my seniority in the assembly will be invaluable not only as a legislator but in the selection for committee assignments.

"On this basis I have no intention nor desire to seek the new senate seat."

During 1964 the Coast Guard saved nearly 3000 lives and rescued ships and cargo valued at more than 2 billion dollars.

CSAA Offers Tips On Driving Safety

With communities returning to standard time last Sunday, the California State Automobile Association urged motorists to drive carefully since darkness is arriving earlier with the turning back of the clocks.

The CSAA emphasized that three out of five traffic fatalities occur at night, although only 30 per cent of driving is done during darkness. With the return of standard time, darkness arrives during the late afternoon, when both pedestrians and motorists are returning home from work.

To reduce accidents, the CSAA offered the following safe driving tips for darkness hours:

1. Cut down driving speeds at night. It is easy to out-drive your headlights.
2. Be especially watchful for pedestrians. A pedestrian wearing dark clothing is difficult to see under artificial light.
3. Keep headlights and windshield clean to provide maximum visibility.
4. Check tail lights, turn signals and high and low headlight beams to be sure they are working properly.
5. Make allowance for your age. Recovery from glare is slower when you are more than 30 years of age.

Flying Club Formed By Local Enthusiasts

By Betty Kielhofer

Thanks to the ambition and hardwork of Pauline Way of Kings Beach, Truckee will at last have a flying club. Mrs. Way called a meeting last November 3rd and succeeded in getting the formation well under way.

The initial meeting was attended mostly by pilots but it was decided to encourage the membership of everyone interested in flying, promotion of general aviation or for reasons of simply spurring economy in the area. Since it was deemed the cvlub shouldn't be exclusively for pilots, it was decided to hold a second meeting on November 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the Terminal Building, leaving many important decisions, to be voted on by all the members. These consist mainly of naming the club, choosing appropriate by-laws, and elect officers.

The club's purpose will primarily be for pleasure, meaning many fly-aways to other cities, social functions, etc. It was discovered that with only the dozen or so in attendance that some 20 seats will be available in planes of those at the meeting.

It is anticipated that as the club grows. it could double this seating space and make a very impressive showing in representing our area at the various state and city functions held throughout the year.

Membership dues were set at $5 per couple annually and meetings will be held on the third Wednesday of each month.

Other objectives of the association will consist of the following: joining the California Council of Aviation Association, supporting California legislation for the betterment of general aviation, promoting interest in flying among the teen-agers as well as adults and all members pledging to do everything possible to further the use and conveniences and safety of our own Truckee-Tahoe Airport. Won't you join us on the 17th?

Moves to Oregon—

Mrs. George Kenyon, former local resident, wrote that the family has bought a nice home in Charleston, Oregon, having recently moved from Coos Bay.

One of San Francisco's major work of art is the mural in Rincon Annex Post Office at Mission and Steuart Streets, painted by Anto Refregier, depicting the history of San Francisco.

Pacific Telephone Turns Table on Winter; Installs Telephone Cables Below Ground

Winter is almost here and residents of this area are busy preparing for the cold months ahead.

But there are some things that stay outside all year around. In the winter, these things take a hard beating from the wind and snow. Pacific Telephone's outside facilities — telephone poles and cables — are some of the many things that take such a beating.

According to Pacific Telephone Manager, J. C. Domergue, the severe winters in this area have often caused service interruptions. In order to reach the trouble spots, telephone repairmen have had to use snow cats, skis and snowshoes.

But Pacific Telephone has turned the tables on ol' man winter. instead of putting the cables above everything, the phone company is burying the cable about 24 inches in the ground.

The most notable example of burying cable in the Lake Tahoe area is at Squaw Valley. Burying the telephone cable on the 9,000 foot peaks and steep slopes of the winter resort illustrates the advantages of buried cable.

"Stormproofing is the first advantage," Domergue said. "In the past ice storms, heavy snows and high winds have caused extensive damage to the conventional aerial facilities."

Other advantages are more reliable service to customers and greatly reduced maintenance. Also, the operation of burying cable and wire is much faster, simpler, and safer than regular aerial construction.

Usually plowing the cable in can proceed at a rate of four or five miles a day. But on the high Sierra peaks, the job is a little more difficult.

"The mountains, which are spotted with rock cliffs, provide perfect ski slopes in the winter, but are subject of avalanche slides of shale rock in the summer. Many times we are forced to detour around the cliffs and the avalanche areas," Domergue explained.

PHONE COMPANY PREPARES FOR WINTER

Telephone lineman, Bob Sharp of Tahoe City, guides cable into trenching device as the bulldozer moves along mountain peak. Squaw Valley can be seen at the lower right hand section of the photograph. Contractor for the project is the communications Construction and Excavating Company of Redding.

In the mountains burying cable is accomplished by a bulldozer first ripping a path through the terrain. The dozer than goes along this path laying the cable approximately two feet below the surface.

More than 15,000 feet of new underground cable are being used to connect the phones in the winter resort network.

The Squaw Valley buried cable project is just one example of the phone company's program to bury its facilities "when and where it is practical and economical."

One of the biggest assets in the residential areas and along the highways is keeping the countryside and neighborhoods free from telephone poles and overhead wires, Domergue said.

The trend toward underground facilities has been significant during the past few years. In 1960, Pacific Telephone installed 900 miles of underground cable throughout California. In 1964, the company installed 4,100 miles of underground cable, almost a five-fold increase.

Domergue said that 70 per cent of Pacific Telephone's investment in new outside facilities is for underground construction.

NOVEMBER DATES

Small Robert Haswell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haswell was the incentive for a celebration on his birthdate, November 3, complete with gifts and cake in honor of the occasion.

The Commodores Return to Lodge

CRYSTAL BAY—The Commodores, one of the most exciting and versatile singing groups in the country, returns on November 16 to the Topaz Room of the Nevada Lodge, North Tahoe's largest year 'round resort-hotel-casino.

The four fabulous Commodores have appeared in top night clubs across the nation and have broken records throughout the Reno-Tahoe entertainment circuit. Their magnetic personalities and professional performances won them a place on the "Arthur Godfrey Talent Scouts" for a record 22 consecutive weeks.

Not only are they one of the finest vocal acts in show business today, but they are also outstanding instrumental musicians.

Each man is featured in their act, for each is an individual performer and showman. Charlie Speed sings top tenor and plays bass, Rust Wade, second tenor and piano, Kenny Smith, lead and doubles on guitar and banjo, and Ronnie Baron on drums.

Collectively, they do impressions of all the major vocal groups, and individually, they each do impressions of top singing stars.

Whether it s a time-honored standard, spiritual or current Tin Pan Alley favorite, everyone is sure to enjoy an exciting evening with this outstanding quartet.

The popular duo of John and Bobbie continues to share the stage through November 30.

The world's largest clock, in Pittsburgh, Pa., has a face 60 feet wide and hands each weighing 3300 pounds.

"LAKE ECHOES"
By Bethel
Reno 322-9780

Nevada Day proved to be one of the most glorious Fall days the area has enjoyed. Bethel and son, Pieter, started for the parade at Carson City — late, as usual — however, the time was announced on the radio and an hour was discovered due to day light saving time change, so to the parade on time after all! Believe it or not! Arriving at the starting point of the parade, the clang, clang, clang of the trolley announced the Nevada Lodge cable car with the banner "Nevada made Nob Hill" and pulling the float of the North Tahoe Nevada Chamber of Commerce —a rocket complete with smoke and beauty Queen, Linda Draney, in a beautiful white bathing suit.

Amid shouts of "hop on", we joined the motorman, James McCourry, Fred and Alysmae Schultz. Alysmae attired in truly early fashion and Fred the early day dandy. Other passengers were Bob and Genieve Jenkins, Art and Helen Olsen, Dorothy Bridges and Nancy Mitchell and various other passengers getting on and off as the notion struck them.

This is the way to really enjoy a parade and passengers aboard were ready to sign up for the next celebration.

LAUNDERETTE GETS AWARD IN DISTRICT

Bob Daneri, owner of the Donner Trail Launderette, coin-operated laundry store, Donner Lake, has been awarded first prize in the 5th annual coin-op beautiful contest. Daneri, whose coin-op opened in July, 1964, said he was particularly proud of his store since it was in competition with almost 35,000 coin-operated laundry and dry-cleaning stores in the United States.

The award was for Area E which encumbers the 11 western states.

The certificate of award, which Daneri proudly displays in his 16-washer store ,reads: "Donner Trail Launderette has, through meritorious achievement in design and establishment of a most beautiful coin-op that promotes a favorable image of the coin-op industry to his customers and his community, earned the respect of his industry as attested to herewith."

NURSERY SCHOOL TO FINANCE EXPENSES

The Truckee Cooperative Nursery School membership is busy with the annual need of providing the teacher's salary and purchasing and maintaining equipment used in the school. A recent survey stressed the necessity of creating the right type of pre-school environment in the community and has been studied and is being applied on a nation wide scale.

The local group now has toys displayed at Walker's Toggery and in other business places during the next few weeks, including a first step baby doll with her elaborate wardrobe and infant accessories and fire engine and a fireman s hat.

Members of the group, the Toggery and Z Market may be contacted for further information of the project.

In recent months the necessity of the right kind of pre-school environment has been stressed on a nation wide scale. Organizations such as the Truckee Parent Cooperative Nursery School are instrumental in filling this need.

flicts with the will of the people. Those who are afraid to let the majority exercise its will at the state level have lost touch with the fundamental philosophy of those who founded this nation.

"Our Constitution and our pattern of government were evolved through workable compromises and our progress as a nation has been accelerated by a willingness to compromise in a manner which gives recognition to minority expression."

In discussing the problems at Lake Tahoe, the senator declared:

"In turning to Senate Bill 149, I am very optimistic that the Lake Tahoe Joint Study Committee will arrive at some very helpful and needed answers to the problems facing the basin. With exception of one member to be elected by the full Committee, the Committee has been appointed and is planning an organization meeting around the middle of November to start the ball rolling.

"It is gratifying to note the enthusiasm of the members, each one being aware of their responsibility and the momentous task facing them. To those who have inquired as to why this study was set for a long two year period, I agree that while their job should not, and must not, take that long, the prime factor of the two year period is that the State of Nevada convenes its legislature only every other year.

"Since this is a joint venture, proposed legislation must be forthcoming from each state, and this co-ordination between the two states under this study can be one of the best accomplishments we can make at Lake Tahoe. It is important to note that these committee members are well aware that time is of the essence and without their diligent and harmonious efforts, the study could be a big bust . . . and I am not referring to the latest fashions either."
